INTRODUCTION

Mission

Virginia Commission for the Arts celebrates and champions artistic excellence and encourages growth in artistic creativity, quality and innovation. VCA invests in the arts in the Commonwealth by supporting and encouraging full participation in a creative culture that will benefit all Virginians.

VCA Mandates and Goals

VCA's mission is driven by five mandates that address (1) availability and accessibility to the arts, (2) a commitment to lifelong arts learning and education, (3) a healthy and productive arts infrastructure, (4) the arts as a vital component of the Commonwealth's economy, and (5) an environment that is open and conducive to artistic expression. These mandates and goals are addressed by interconnecting themes that emphasize a strong commitment of support, relationship building and active service to the arts community and citizens of the Commonwealth.

These themes include:

- Enhancing VCA's capacities through improved communications, grants making processes and response systems.
- Increasing resources for the arts through more and better relationships, partnerships and alliances with the public and private sectors.
- Identifying and facilitating synergies within the existing Commonwealth's arts resources for greater impact, sustainability and adaptability.
- Stimulating and advancing a broader and richer dialogue about the role and value of the arts and creativity in the everyday lives of Virginians.

The Virginia Commission for the Arts' Strategic Plan can be downloaded from our website at http://www.arts.virginia.gov/about_strategic.html

Background on the Commission

The Commission's funds come from the Virginia General Assembly and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency. The agency, which was created in 1968, is guided by 13 Commissioners appointed to five-year terms by the Governor and confirmed by the General Assembly. To ensure statewide representation, at least one Commissioner – and no more than two – is appointed from each Congressional district. A full-time staff of five and one part-time staff implements programs and policies. The Commission is assisted by a statewide network of advisory panelists.

The 2017-2018 Guidelines for Funding, presented in the following pages, describe the grant programs of the agency. The Guidelines cover activities taking place between July 1, 2017, and June 30, 2018. This document reflects the advice of many of the constituents of the Commission. The agency encourages anyone in Virginia to comment on its programs and services by writing, calling, or e-mailing the Commission office at any time during the year.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF THE COMMISSION

Artistic Quality

Supporting and stimulating excellence in the arts throughout Virginia is the responsibility of the Commission.

Artistic quality is the first consideration in the decision to fund any arts organization or arts activity. The Commission supports artistic excellence where it already exists, encourages growth in artistic quality, and works to make this artistic excellence available to all Virginians.

The advisory panels make evaluations of artistic quality. The Commission chooses the panelists for their knowledge of and experience in the arts. They attend activities of the Commission grantees and have first-hand knowledge of the quality of the work of the organizations.

Access to the Arts

The Commission strives to make quality arts experiences available and accessible to all Virginians, regardless of age, ability, gender, geographic location, race, or socio-economic status. The Commission supports existing arts organizations in all parts of the Commonwealth and encourages new organizations that serve people with limited access to the arts.

In addition, the Commission makes a substantial investment in performing arts touring each year as a way of increasing the availability of high quality arts throughout the Commonwealth.

All applicants are expected to consider the needs and abilities of special populations, such as geography, age, gender, race and socio-economic status when planning their programs.

Diversity

The Commission believes that it is through the arts we celebrate the diverse cultures of this country.

The Commission funds arts organizations, artists, and arts activities that preserve and present the many cultures of contemporary life in the Commonwealth.

Commission grantees that are serving racially, ethnically, and/or culturally diverse communities are expected to actively seek racial, ethnic, and/or cultural diversity in their artists, audiences, boards, and staff. Applications for funding should fully describe all efforts to create this diversity.

Assistance to Individual Artists

The Commission relies on a healthy, vital and productive arts infrastructure that supports Virginia's individual artists, arts entrepreneurs, businesses and institutions.

The Commission provides leadership in supporting the arts infrastructure of artists and arts professionals in their development and ability to support themselves through their work.

Additionally, the Commission supports artist retreats, access centers for equipment and studio/rehearsal space, and organizations that provide information and advisory services for individual artists.

Development of Arts Organizations

The Commission provides ongoing support for established arts organizations and helps in the development of new arts organizations which fill a community need. In deciding which organizations to support, the Commission looks for high standards of artistic quality and management, as well as the amount of local commitment to an organization in terms of attendance and financial support.

The Commission funds both professional and nonprofessional organizations that strive for artistic excellence. The Commission defines a "professional" organization as one composed of, hiring, or serving artists who earn or endeavor to earn their living through the practice of their art.

The Commission provides technical assistance to arts organizations by paying for staff and board members to attend workshops and seminars and funding short term consultations on management problems.

The Commission views its financial assistance role to arts groups as that of a catalyst, helping to strengthen private and local support of the arts. The Commission believes in a diversified funding base for arts organizations.

Organizations receiving funding from the Commission are expected to earn as much income from ticket sales/admission fees as possible, while seeking contributions from individuals, corporations, foundations, and government. This philosophy recognizes that government resources are limited while demands for services are high, and that the arts are healthier when open to diverse influences and not financially dependent on any single source of support.

Some arts organizations exist to present the work of one artistic leader and are not intended to continue after that leader is gone. Other, equally worthy arts organizations have a more broad-based artistic philosophy and are intended to continue serving their communities beyond the tenure of the original artistic leader. The Commission strongly encourages this second group of organizations to build cash reserve funds and endowment funds to ensure financial stability in the future.

Arts Education

The Commission values and promotes the arts as a key element in lifelong learning and recognizes the essential role of arts learning and education in the intellectual and creative growth of Virginians of all ages. The study of the arts is essential to human development and the education of all citizens. Authentic arts' learning is experiential and begins in childhood and continues through adulthood. The Commission serves as an advocate for arts education providing support for arts experiences that inspire and ignite imagination. There are no age restrictions on creativity.

The Commission's Arts in Education Program provides Virginians of all ages with opportunities for direct residency experiences with teaching artists to encourage a sustainable creative culture. These resources are meant to enhance and support sequential, curriculum-based arts instruction delivered by certified arts teachers in preK-12 schools and expand quality arts access to underserved populations.

ADVISORY PANELS

To help in making decisions on grant applications to artists and arts organizations, the Commission has established panels to assist in the review of applications. Panelists make recommendations on grant applications; evaluate activities funded by the Commission, and make recommendations on the Commission's policies and procedures. They are appointed for one-year terms and may be reappointed twice to serve a maximum of three years.

For FY18 grant cycle, there will be:

- one statewide, multi-disciplinary panel to review General Operating Support applications from new arts organizations and current arts organizations that were downgraded in FY17.
- one statewide, multi-disciplinary panel to review applications for Project Grants.
- one statewide, multi-disciplinary panel to review applications for Artists in Education Grants and Teaching Artist Roster applications.
- one statewide, multi-disciplinary panel to review applications from performers to be included in the Performing Arts Tour Directory

Each of the statewide panels consists of seven to nine members appointed by the Commission. The panelists are local artists, arts administrators, trustees of arts organizations, arts educators, and arts supporters. They are chosen for their expertise in the arts, their ability to work with others in a panel situation, and their willingness to devote the time required to review applications. In making appointments to the panels the Commission attempts to balance each panel with knowledge of the different arts disciplines and diverse cultural perspectives.

Nominations for the advisory panels may be submitted to the Executive Director at any time during the year. Each nomination is kept on file for three years. A list of current panelists is available from the Commission office and on the Commission website.

GRANT PROGRAMS: GENERAL POLICIES

Basic Eligibility

The Virginia Commission for the Arts awards grants to Virginia organizations which:

- are not-for-profit and exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a), which includes the 501(c)3 designation of the Internal Revenue code, or are units of government, or are educational institutions, or are local chapters of tax exempt national organizations;
- produce, present, or support in Virginia, dance, literary arts, media arts, music, theater, visual, and related arts;
- comply with Title VI, Section 601, of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which states that no person, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.
- comply with Title IV, Section 1681, of the Education Amendments of 1972, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Section 6101, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex or age.
- comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, which state that no otherwise qualified person shall, solely by reason of his or her handicap, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

Actions of the General Assembly

All Commission programs and grant amounts are subject to change, based upon action on the state budget by the Virginia General Assembly and by the Office of the Governor.

Acknowledgment

In all published material regarding the particular activity supported, acknowledgment must be made that the activity is partially supported by a grant from the Virginia Commission for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts. The purpose of crediting the Virginia Commission for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts is to provide citizens with an accurate picture of the broad range of arts activities supported by their tax dollars. The logo of the Virginia Commission for the Arts and the National Endowment for the Arts, as well as funding credit can be downloaded from the Commission website (www.arts.virginia.gov). This acknowledgment should be included in programs, print and online newsletters, educational materials, brochures, posters, news releases, web sites, catalogues, and videos.

Amount of Assistance

Refer to each grant category for maximum grant amounts and matching requirements.

Low priority will be given to organizations that do not show strong efforts to seek multiple funding resources. Applicants are expected to charge a reasonable fee when appropriate rather than offer free events.

Support for an organization or project does not imply future Commission support. Application must be made each year and will be considered in relation to applications submitted by all other organizations. All Commission grants are subject to funds available.

Grant Contract

Each grant application must be signed by an individual with the authority to act on behalf of the applicant organization. A signed application form is the applicant's agreement to do what is described in the application and to comply with the Grant Conditions, a copy of which is attached to each application form. Applicants must attach a signed copy of the Certification of Assurances to the application and keep a copy on file.

When the Commission awards a grant, a letter is sent to the applicant with the payment schedule for that grant. Major changes in activities, personnel, or budget must be approved in advance by the Commission.

Reporting Requirements

The Commission requires a final report on each grant within 30 days of the end of the grant period, and no later than June 1. Final report forms, if required, can be found on the Commission website under Grants/Applications and Forms http://www.arts.virginia.gov/grants_applications.html

Each grantee must maintain accurate financial records for any activity supported by Commission funds. The Commission or its authorized representative shall have access to these records.

The Commission requires General Operating support grantees that have income of over $600,000 for at least two consecutive years to submit an opinioned, independent audit of their financial records every year.

Lobbying

No part of a Virginia Commission for the Arts grant shall be used for any activity intended to influence a member of Congress or the General Assembly to favor or oppose any legislation.

Ineligible Activities

The Virginia Commission for the Arts does not fund:

- activities restricted to an organization's membership
- costs of parties, receptions, fund-raising benefits, etc.
- endowments, capital campaigns
- activities that are primarily religious in purpose
- college or university-based projects that are part of a required course or curriculum, that do not involve and serve a significant non-student population, or that are for activities that are otherwise available in the community
- general operating support for historic celebrations or community promotional activities
- applications to reduce or eliminate existing deficits
- arts activities / programs that have started or already occurred
- activities or programs that take place outside Virginia with the exception of the technical assistance grant.
- vocal and musical ensembles that perform primarily pop, Broadway, or barbershop music, or that focus primarily on competitions

GENERAL OPERATING SUPPORT FOR ARTS ORGANIZATIONS

(See General Policies)

Purpose

Assist organizations of artistic merit in fulfilling their missions by providing funds to maintain their stability and encourage their advancement.

Description

These grants provide general operating support to Virginia arts organizations to continue, strengthen, and expand their programs.

Eligible Applicants

Virginia organizations whose primary purpose is the arts (excluding units of government and educational institutions and their private companion foundations), that have an independent governing board, that meet the Basic Eligibility criteria, and that are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Organizations must be incorporated in Virginia before applying for General Operating Support and must have completed three years of programming. Applicants for General Operating Support are required to present at least three different programs or services for the public in Virginia each year.

A Virginia arts organization is defined as one whose primary purpose is the arts, that is incorporated in the state, and that has its headquarters and home season, or activities equivalent to a home season for non-producing organizations, in the state.

Applicants that are at least three years old must have a previous year's income of at least $10,000 in cash. Organizations with smaller budgets may be eligible to apply for Project Grants or Technical Assistance.

NOTE: First-time General Operating Support applicants must contact the Commission staff before applying to confirm eligibility. Organizations applying for General Operating Support are not eligible for Project Grant funding.

Avocational Organizations. Priority in this funding program will be given to organizations that pay artists. Avocational organizations may be funded in this program if they provide specific services or programs that would otherwise not be available in that particular geographic area. Avocational organizations may apply in the other grant programs of the Commission.

Festivals. In order to be eligible for General Operating Support a festival must be a separately incorporated Virginia organization with a year-round administrative staff and a year round presence in the community; have as its primary purpose the arts, spend the majority of its budget on arts activities; last longer than three consecutive days; hire professional artists; and include education and outreach programs as part of the festival. Other festivals may apply for Project Grants and Touring Assistance.

Educational Organizations. Organizations that exist primarily to provide arts education should meet the following criteria:

- The instructors should be professionals or former professionals in their fields
- Classes should be aimed at acquiring skills at ever-increasing levels of difficulty
- Classes should be focused on development of skills rather than being primarily rehearsals for a performance

- The organization should have a diversified funding base, beyond tuition and ticket sales for public performances, that shows wide-spread community support
- Scholarships should be available for low income students. There should be an active effort to recruit students from all segments of the community
- In addition to instruction, there should be regular opportunities for students to perform or exhibit for the public

Vocal and Musical Ensembles. Vocal and musical ensembles that perform primarily pop, Broadway, or barbershop music, or that focus primarily on competitions are not eligible for General Operating Support but are eligible to apply for Project Grants for new initiatives or for Technical Assistance.

Diversity. Applicants that are serving racially, ethnically, and/or culturally diverse communities are expected to actively seek racial, ethnic, and/or cultural diversity in their artists, audiences, boards, and staff. Applications for funding should fully describe all efforts to create this diversity.

Diversified Funding Base. Applicants are expected to earn as much income from ticket sales/admission fees as possible, while seeking contributions from individuals, corporations, foundations, and government, as well as income from special fund-raising activities. This philosophy recognizes that government resources are limited while demands for services are high and that the arts are healthier when open to diverse influences and not financially dependent on any single source of support.

Eligible Activities

- Special projects
- Maintenance / operation costs
- On-going programming

Deadline

The Commission awards all General Operating Support Grants for a one year period. Each grantee is required to submit an application annually. Organizations that have been funded by the Commission in the General Operating Support category in past year will be notified by the Commission in early December about what information will be required for the application deadlines. All new applicants must contact the Commission before applying to determine eligibility.

Short Form Applications are due February 1, 2017 by 5:00 p.m., for expenses occurring between July 1, 2017, and June 30, 2018. This is not a postmark deadline. Short form applications are reviewed by the staff and Commission members only. If accepted, short form applicants will be awarded at the same priority level as in FY17.

All current General Operating Support grantees should submit a short form for the FY18 grant cycle with the exception of GOS grantees that were downgraded in priority level from last year. These organizations may submit a long form if they wish to be reconsidered for funding in FY18. NOTE: Short form applications will be emailed to eligible organizations and cannot be found online.

Long Form applications are due by March 1, 2017, by 5:00 p.m., for expenses occurring between July 1, 2017, and June 30, 2018. This is not a postmark deadline. All new GOS applicants must submit a long form, and current GOS applicants who were downgraded in priority ranking last year may submit a long form or opt to submit a short form application and receive the same priority funding as in the current year. For the FY18 grant cycle, long form applicants will be reviewed by a single statewide, multi-disciplinary panel with representation from across the Commonwealth and reflecting the geographic and demographic diversity of the state.

Reporting Requirements

If the grant is awarded, the organization must submit a year-end report no later than June 1 of each year in order to receive the second payment for the grant. Failure to submit a final report by June 1 will impact future funding in the next grant year. If an organization undergoes a substantive change in its mission, its artistic leadership, or its management during the grant period, the Commission must be notified immediately. If in the opinion of the Commission such changes alter the purpose for which the grant was awarded, the Commission may require the organization to submit justification for continuing to receive the grant funds.

Amount of Assistance

Organizations approved for funding will receive no more than 10% of their previous year's cash income, less Commission support, commissions to artists, facility rental income for non-arts activities, money paid to the organization for out-of-state trips or tours by the people taking the trips or tours, and money raised for capital purposes in the previous year. Most organizations will receive less than the maximum, and no organization is guaranteed a specific funding amount. Minimum grant awards will be $500 per year; maximum grant awards will be $200,000 per year.

Criteria for Evaluating Applications

- Artistic excellence
- Effective management
- Public service and public benefit to the community

Artistic Excellence is the first and most important standard of review. The organization has high-quality activities that achieve a distinct artistic vision consistent with the applicant's mission and goals. The Commission supports organizations with a wide variety of artistic programs, including both the preservation of an artistic heritage and the presentation of new works and new artists.

Effective Management is measured by the organization's capacity to effectively manage its operations and resources as reflected by organizational stability and fiscal position. The organization has a sound, board approved business or strategic planning process that shows evidence that the organization is maximizing its opportunities to generate earned income and contributed income. The organization has a strong board composition, staff qualifications, and clearly articulated roles and responsibilities.

Public Service and Public Benefit to the Community includes efforts to expand the applicant's reach through partnerships that work to make the arts a vital part of community life. The organization has a commitment to arts education for Virginians of all ages as part of or beyond the organization's regular programming. The organization makes the arts a vital part of economic development for the organization's home community, its region or the state.

In evaluating the applications, the Commission will take into account whether the requested grant will result in significant programs for the community that could not be provided within the applicant's existing financial resources. The Commission will also evaluate the general merits of each application relative to others being considered.

NOTE: The Commission requires General Operating Support grantees that have income of over $600,000 for at least two consecutive years, to submit an opinioned, independent audit of their financial records every year.

Application/Review/Payment Procedure

1. Applicants submit the information requested by the Commission each year. The Commission staff is available for consultation on applications, and to review drafts of applications before the application deadline. If assistance is needed, contact the Commission office at least four weeks before the deadline. Organizations planning to apply to the Commission should include the panelists and Commissioners on their mailing lists.
2. Applicants submit completed application forms by the deadlines (not a postmark deadline). NO EXCEPTIONS. The Commission will not accept any application materials via facsimile transmission or other electronic means (e.g. e-mail).
3. The Commission staff reviews each application for completeness and eligibility. Incomplete or ineligible applications will not be reviewed and will be returned to the applicant with an explanation.
4. Copies of the applications are sent to the members of the statewide panel.
5. The panelists independently review each application prior to the panel meeting.
6. The panel meets with two members of the Commission staff. Commissioners attend panel meetings as observers. Applicant representatives may attend the panel meeting as observers but may not make a presentation to the panel. The panel makes its recommendations after group discussion. Names of Commissioners and advisory panelists, as well as dates and locations of Commission and panel meetings, are available from the Commission office and on the Commission website. Applicants are encouraged to invite the panelists and Commissioners to their public arts events in advance of the panel meetings.
7. Following the panel meeting, the Commission staff makes a recommendation on each application.
8. The board of the Commission then reviews the recommendations of the panel and staff and takes final action on the applications.
9. Applicants are notified of Commission action by mail. The appeals process for applications not awarded funds can be found in the appeals section of the guidelines.
10. The Commission will generally pay 85 percent of each year's grant amount by August 15th. The final 15 percent will be paid within 30 days after the Commission receives the final report on the grant. The Commission reserves the right to use an alternative payment schedule in special circumstances. Final reports must be submitted after the completion of all funded activities and by June 1st.

GENERAL OPERATING SUPPORT FOR MAJOR ARTS INSTITUTIONS

Organizations that meet the standards described below will be reviewed by a statewide, multi-disciplinary panel in alternating years. These organizations will follow the same guidelines and application procedures as other applicants for General Operating Support.

In addition, Major Arts Institutions must have the following:

- Have significant economic and artistic impact in its region of the state

- Have education/outreach programs

- The Commission staff will submit to the Commission Board for their approval any arts organization that meets the above criteria to be moved into the Major Arts Organization category. The Commission staff will also notify the Commission Board of any Major Arts Organization that does not meet the above criteria for three consecutive years. The Commission may vote to remove the organization from this category.

SUGGESTIONS TO APPLICANTS FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

- Check the Commission website (www.arts.virginia.gov) regularly for news, grant applications, deadlines, and report forms. Each year the Commission staff conducts application assistance workshops around the state to explain the different grant programs and application procedures. Applicants are encouraged to attend one of the workshops.
- Applicants should read the “General Policies” section as well as the Guidelines for Funding for a particular grant program. General Policies apply to all grantees of the Commission.
- New applicants to the Commission should contact the Commission staff as soon as possible for information on application procedures and for eligibility.
- In preparing grant applications, applicants should not assume that the panelists know their organization first-hand. Tell your organization’s story and the impact it is hoping to achieve in as concise and compelling manner as possible. Include factual information to back up statements about impact on the community.
- Jargon, buzz words, and insider language in the proposal are discouraged.
- Applicants are responsible for complying with the instructions and Certification of Assurances attached to each application form.
- Once an application is submitted to the Commission, inform the Commission promptly of any changes in the address, key personnel or other pertinent information about their grant application. If a grant is awarded, any substantive changes in the activities or budget described in the application must be approved in advance by the Commission staff.
- Each applicant should include the names of the advisory panelists, the board members of the Commission, and the Commission staff on all mailing lists, and regularly notify them of activities and events. The addresses are available from the Commission office and on the Commission website. The panelist lists are updated each year.

COMPLAINTS PERTAINING TO CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLIANCE

Any person who believes that a grantee of the Virginia Commission for the Arts is not in compliance with either the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act, or Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 may file a written complaint with the Executive Director of the Commission. The letter of complaint should include information about the dates, location, and specific aspects of the grantee's activities that may not be in compliance.

The staff of the Commission will attempt to resolve the matter informally, if possible, by meeting with the grantee and the complainant.

If the staff of the Commission determines that the grantee is in full compliance with civil rights requirements, the Executive Director of the Commission will so inform the grantee and the complainant. If the staff of the Commission determines that the matter cannot be resolved informally, the matter will be brought to the board of the Commission for consideration of suspension or termination of funding.

APPEALS PROCESS FOR GRANT APPLICANTS

Applicants who believe their applications for funding were rejected for any of the following three reasons may appeal to the Commission for reconsideration:

1. The application was declined on the basis of review criteria other than those appearing in the guidelines;
2. The application was declined due to influence of advisory panel or Commission members who willfully failed to disclose conflicts of interest; or
3. The application was declined because erroneous information was provided by the staff, panelists, or Commission board members at the time of review, despite the fact that the applicant provided accurate and complete information on regulation forms as part of the standard application process.

Incomplete applications are specifically denied any appeals process. Dissatisfaction with the denial of an award or the amount of a grant award is not grounds for appeal.

Requests of appeals must be received, in writing, at the Commission office within 30 days of the applicant's notification of a funding award decision. The board of the Commission will review and act upon the appeal at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

If the board of the Commission changes a funding decision as a result of an appeal, the timing of the payment of the grant will be at the discretion of the agency's Executive Director.

APPEALS PROCESS FOR PUBLICATIONS

(Performing Arts Tour Directory and Artists in Education Artist Roster)

Applicants for either the Performing Arts Tour Directory or Artist Roster may appeal a decision not to be included in the Directory or on the Roster on the basis of the three reasons listed above. The same procedure is followed for these appeals with the exception that applicants have only 15 days from notification to file their appeals because of publication schedules. These appeals will be reviewed and acted upon by the Executive Committee of the Commission.
